

Reflecting on Your Journey

These questions and prompts will help you identify and articulate significant things you have discovered on your journey with Christ thus far, and your responses will help shape your journey from here on.

- Something important God has taught you about Himself and relating to Him:

- What has God taught you concerning your character?

- Something important God has taught you about balancing work and personal life are:

- Something important God has taught you about relationships with other Christians and The Church:

- Some of your core convictions about people and relationships are:

- Some insights God has given you about your contribution for His kingdom:

- Describe your passion in life (one sentence):

- If you were to write a title for the next chapter in your life, what would it be?

- What is your response to the mission and vision statement of NewSong?

- On a separate sheet, write your personal testimony of how you came to journey with God and what the path has looked like up to now. Include any past church affiliations and ministry involvements.